

Policy No. 1.23

Disclosure of patient information

The agency has confidential policies that protect the confidentiality of service users. All information obtained is managed appropriately and will not be disclosed without permission, except when required by legislation or the need to protect the wellbeing of others.